

CYCLING CAMPAIGN FOR NORTH BEDFORDSHIRE

PRIVACY POLICY

This document sets out our current privacy policy, in line with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). This policy is kept under review and may be updated.

Who are we

Cycling Campaign for North Bedfordshire (CCNB) is a voluntary organisation that has been campaigning since 1992 to

(a) promote, encourage and support cycling in North Bedfordshire as an important means of transport and as a recreational activity and

(b) encourage consideration of the needs of cyclists in all aspects of transport planning and management.

Our vision is to see Bedford as a 'Town of Cyclists' and 'Cycle Friendly Communities'.

What data do we collect

We collect data from new membership or membership renewal forms - name and address, including e-mail address, and telephone number.

The data is stored on a password protected Excel database accessed only by the CCNB Chair/News Editor.

We use the data to send out newsletters and news updates either by post or by e-mail.

We do not share, sell or trade information about our members or supporters for marketing purposes.

Access to your personal data

Under GDPR you have the right to access, amend or delete any information we hold about you. If you would like to do so please send a request to ccnb@ccnb.org.uk or CCNB Membership, 15 Dove Road, Bedford, MK41 7AA.
